

CONTENTS

Figures ix
Acknowledgments xiii

INTRODUCTION

Performance Studies in Canada: Mapping Genealogies and Geographies of Performance Culture 3
Laura Levin and Marlis Schweitzer

PART ONE: PERFORMATIVE GEOGRAPHIES

- 1 Calgary's Cultural Topography: The Performance of a City 43
Susan Bennett
- 2 Xeyxelómós and Lady Franklin Rock: Place Naming,
Performance Historiography, and Settler Methodologies 67
Heather Davis-Fisch
- 3 Choreographies of Place: Dancing the Vancouver Sublime
from Dusk to Dawn 90
Peter Dickinson
- 4 Travelling Soles: Tracing the Footprints of Our Stolen Sisters 115
Julie Nagam

PART TWO: SPECTACLES OF NATION

- 5 The American Girl Comes to Canada 137
Marlis Schweitzer
- 6 Presumptive Intimacies and the Politics of Touch: "Strategic Culture" in Simulations of War 161
Natalie Alvarez
- 7 Sochi Olympics 2014, Canadian Truth and Reconciliation, and the Haunting Ghouls of Canadian Nationalism 184
Helene Vosters

PART THREE: REFRAMING POLITICAL RESISTANCE

- 8 Enchantment's Irreconcilable Connection: Listening to Anger,
Being Idle No More 211
Dylan Robinson
- 9 On Political Performance Art and Rob Fordian
Performatives 236
Laura Levin
- 10 Occupying the Object: Leslie Baker and Andréane Leclerc
in Performance 262
Erin Hurley

PART FOUR: PRACTISING RESEARCH

- 11 Two-Way Street: The Icon in the City 287
MJ Thompson
- 12 on love: Performance as Pedagogy 316
Naila Keleta-Mae
- 13 Writing the Red Trench: Performance, Visual Culture, and Emplaced Writing 340
Brian Rusted
- 14 Working Art – Working Knowledge: Doing the Visual and Making the Material Matter 358
Pam Hall

AFTERWORD

Performance Studies and Canada 383
Ric Knowles

Bibliography 389

Contributors 435

Index 439