

Contents

Introduction: the clothed body	9
1. Body and beauty.....	17
Body and social identity between the end of the 19 th century and the beginning of the 20 th	17
Artifice and ‘nature’	20
Fashion and prostitution.....	22
Women’s emancipation and queer characters	24
Fashion and cultural identity: the Italian woman is Bellissima.....	26
From stereotypes to art.....	28
Warriors	30
Body, fashion and cinema.....	31
Digital beauty.....	33
2. Language and fashion	38
From the name of God to the power of the brand.....	38
The powers of the name.....	39
The body as a text: the T-shirt	42
The stolen letter.....	45
3. Fashion Theory	48
Fashion theory: between semiotics and cultural studies.....	48
Clothing, fashion, identity.....	52
4. Fashion as cultural translation.....	56
Visuality and cultural translation.....	56
Orientalisms	58
Saris, bodices and bras.....	61
Veils.....	66
Signs and pop icons	69

5. Across the borders of fashion and music.....	73
The clothed body and the senses.....	73
Dressing, feeling	74
Mediascapes	76
Three strategies	77
Fashion and music in the African-American experience.....	79
Grotesque bodies.....	80
6. Across the borders of fashion and cinema.....	83
Visual semiotics and fashion	83
Vision and writing.....	85
Image and identity.....	87
The pincushion	89
Hands, name, défilé.....	91
7. Tigersprung : vintage, revival, reuse.....	93
The angel of fashion.....	93
Vintage	95
Kelly, birkin and luxury vintage	97
DDR Nostalgie.....	99
Recycling, reusing: consumerism and imagery practices.....	101
Waste.....	102
8. Dandyism, glamour, grotesque.....	107
‘Fashion killed the dandy’	107
The detail.....	108
Glamour	111
The dandy’s gender.....	112
Luxury and grotesque	113
Bibliography	116