

Contents

Introduction: The Opioid Crisis and Expressive Culture TRAVIS D. STIMELING	1
--	---

PART I

On the Outside Looking In: The Opioid Crisis from Without

1. “Something Too Pure / Is Killing Us”: Opioid-Addiction Porn, Endurance, and the Neoliberal Appropriation of Resilience JORDAN LOVEJOY	17
2. “Snort Pills on My Head”: The Visual Rhetoric of Addiction, Abjection, and White Trash in The Wild and Wonderful Whites of West Virginia CHRISTOPHER GARLAND	33
3. The Pill: Aesthetics, Addiction, and Gender in Jennifer Weiner’s All Fall Down ASHLEIGH HARDIN	51
4. Prince, Tom Petty, and Pain: Projections of Authenticity in Popular Music LEIGH H. EDWARDS	64
5. “Maybe If I’d Stayed”: Appalachian Outmigration and Narratives of Loss in Nate May’s Dust in the Bottomland TRAVIS D. STIMELING	81

PART II

If You Lived Here: Representing the Opioid Epidemic from Within

- | | | |
|-----|--|-----|
| 6. | Pretty Lil Azzie
CRYSTAL GOOD | 97 |
| 7. | The Way the World Is: From Maggie Boylan
MICHAEL HENSON | 99 |
| 8. | Finding Maggie Boylan
MICHAEL HENSON | 105 |
| 9. | You Talkin' about Me? Turning the Blood of Appalachia's Opioid Epidemic into Ink
JACQUELINE YAHN | 118 |
| 10. | Remediating the Opioid Crisis in Museums
ETHAN SHARP | 132 |
| 11. | A Hole Is Not a Void:
Extraction, Addiction, and Aesthetics
JONAS N. T. BECKER | 149 |
| 12. | Narrative Engagement with the Opioid Epidemic:
From Personal Story to Personal Reflection
AMANDA M. CALEB AND SUSAN MCDONALD | 171 |
| 13. | Recovering from Addiction in Sobriety :
Narrating Disability/Mental Illness
through the Medium of Comic Art
TATIANA PROROKOVA-KONRAD | 182 |
| 14. | "Hey, Let's Have a Very Good Time":
The Opioid Aesthetics of Post-Verbal Rap
AUSTIN T. RICHEY | 201 |

PART III

New Day Dawning: Recovery, Sobriety, and Post-Opioid Futures

- | | |
|---|-----|
| 15. Healing Open Wounds | 221 |
| CHELSEA JACK | |
| 16. Pain Is One Dance Partner: Move with It | 235 |
| ANNE LLOYD WILLETT | |
| 17. Images of Opioid Addiction, Recovery, and Privilege in
Mainstream Hip Hop | 254 |
| PAIGE ZALMAN | |
| 18. The Voices of Hope—A Recovery Community Choir:
Redefining Self, Community, and Success | 267 |
| NATALIE SHAFFER | |
| Contributors | 281 |
| Index | 285 |