

- 6 Foreword
- 8 Introduction

12 What is stop-motion?

- 14 The beginnings
- 18 The illusion of movement
- 26 Physicality
- 32 A continuous performance
- 36 Special effects
- 44 Wholly animated films
- 47 A one-minute film:
The story

48 Focusing the idea

- 50 Art and truth
- 52 Externalizing internal thoughts
- 56 Stories and themes
- 60 Them and us
- 62 Approaching the story
- 66 A change of perspective
- 72 Out of the mouths of... talking umbrellas?
- 80 Economics
- 89 A one-minute film:
Who and where?

90 The puppets

- 92 Telling the story
with puppets
- 94 The physical puppet
- 100 Telling characteristics
- 104 Stylized movement
- 106 Heads and replacements
- 110 Eyes
- 114 Hands
- 116 Puppet size
- 118 Clay
- 122 Other techniques
- 129 A one-minute film:
Getting ready

130 Preparations

- 132 Working with others
- 134 Storyboards
- 136 Sets
- 144 Costume
- 148 Colour
- 151 A one-minute film:
Practical puppets

152 Tools and techniques

- 154 Practicalities
- 166 Lighting
- 170 Sound
- 176 Dialogue
- 180 On-set effects
- 183 Editing
- 187 A one-minute film:
Filming

188 Movement and performance

- 190 Animating on the set
- 196 Puppet design
and movement
- 202 Helping the movement
- 208 Performance
- 213 A one-minute film:
Putting it together

-
- 214 Conclusion
 - 216 A brief history of stop-motion
 - 218 Index
 - 226 Picture credits
 - 228 Acknowledgements