

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
THE READINGS	39
1 Sigurd (Icelandic/Norse): hero as warrior	41
2 John Henry (American): hero of strength	46
3 Finn (Irish/Celtic): national hero	59
4 Duke of Wellington (English): national hero	68
5 George Washington (American): national hero	85
6 Robin Hood (English): class hero	94
7 Coyote (Native American): culture hero	105
8 Maui (Hawaiian/Polynesian): hero as trickster	108
9 Christopher Columbus (Italian): hero as explorer	111
10 Penthesilea (Amazonian): female hero as male	116
11 Eve (biblical): defiant hero	121
12 Prometheus (ancient Greek): defiant hero	125
13 Oedipus (ancient Greek): tragic hero	131
14 Job (biblical): tragic hero	139
15 Joan of Arc (French): hero as saint/hero as martyr/female hero as male	146
16 Galileo (Italian): intellectual hero	154

CONTENTS

17	Arjuna (Indian): reluctant hero	168
18	Gilgamesh (Sumerian): failed hero	173
19	Sisyphus (ancient Greek): absurd hero	184
20	Don Quixote (Spanish): hero as madman	188
21	Davy Crockett (American): comic hero	195
22	Elvis Presley (American): hero as entertainer	207
	Index	217