

Contents

Preface	ix
Chapter 1: How It All Began: History of Two Investigations of an Obscure Book	1
Chapter 2: Different Ways of Doing Theology: Why Do the Episcopal Magisterium and the Theological Magisterium Often Disagree?	21
Chapter 3: Divine Spirit: Is He/She/It Present Always and Everywhere in Human History?	51
Chapter 4: Jesus Christ, the Unique and Universal Savior: Possibility of an Interreligious Christology?	75
Chapter 5: Holy Pagans in Other Holy Religions: The Salvific Significance of Non-Christian Religions?	99
Chapter 6: Church and Mission: Walking Together with Other Religions toward the Kingdom of God?	129
Epilogue: The Joy of Religious Pluralism	165
Appendix: Correspondence Regarding Being Religious Interreligiously	173
Index	227