

Contents

Illustrations ix

Acknowledgments xi

- 1 Introduction: A Personal Dialectic 1
- 2 Shamanism and Culture: Configurations of a Religious Metaphor 13
 - Cultural Ethos and Mysticism* 13
 - Hunting Magic* 23
 - Master of the Animals—The Lady of Wild Things* 25
 - The Spiral and the Labyrinth* 33
 - Shamanism and Ancient Egyptian Religion* 37
 - Shamanistic Metaphors, Techniques, and Appurtenances* 42
 - Mongolian Shamanism* 56
 - The Celtic Religion* 59
 - The Role of the Shaman* 62
- 3 Substance and Function of Shamanism 69
 - Definitions and Problems* 69
 - “Answering the Call,” Initiation, and Shamanic Enlightenment* 71
 - The Shamanistic Experience* 92
 - Shamanism and Psychopathology* 101

4	The Psychotropic Universe: Cosmology of the Spirit World	105
	Cosmic Transformations	105
	Corresponding Realities and Otherworlds	112
	Numerical Potencies	121
	Rock Crystals and the Hexagonal Universe	123
	Reason and Order	127
5	The Ritual Drug Complex: Ethnobiology of Heaven and Hell	131
	The Drug Ceremonial	131
	Psychoactivity and Mechanisms of Hallucinations	142
	Phosphenes	148
6	The Botanic Experience: Hallucinogens in Archaeology and Ethnohistory	151
	The Old World	153
	The New World	166
	The Quest for Magical Plants and the Origins of Cultivation	184
7	The Power of Metaphors: Phenomenology of Symbolic Forms	187
	Language, Perception, and Reality	187
	Metaphor, Myth, and Transcendence	192
	Visionary Experiences and Art	197
	Phosphenes and Shamanistic Symbolism	202
	Shamanistic Parallels and Survivals	204
	Notes	209
	Bibliography	257
	Index	273