

Contents

Preface	vii
Part 1: New Radical Enlightenment
1. Our Posthumous Condition	3
Unsustainability	5
After Postmodernity	9
The Catastrophe of Time	12
2. Enlightened Radicalism	17
Cultural Servitude	22
Enlightened Illiteracy	26
Neutralising Criticism	29
Delegated Intelligence	33
3. Humanities in Transition	37
Part 2: Philosophy for a Common World
1. How Not to Philosophise	53
2. From Infinite Universe to Exhausted Planet	61
3. Philosophy Had a History	67
4. Doing Away with Philosophy	75
5. 'Europe Is Indefensible'	83
6. The Places of Philosophy	90
7. Standardising Thought	98
8. To Write Is to Be Transformed	105
9. Learning to Think	110

10. University without Surrender	114
11. The New Alliances	122
12. End of the 'Great Men'	131
13. Body and Thought	138
14. From Suspicion to Trust	144