

Contents

Foreword by Edward Schillebeeckx xi

Editor's Preface xv

Edward Schillebeeckx: An Orientation to His Thought 1

Part One: Human Experience and Human Liberation 25

1. Structures of Human Experience 27
 - Commentary 27
 - 1/ Coordinates for an Anthropology 28
 - 2/ *The Growth of Experience
into Knowledge: I* 39
 - 3/ *The Growth of Experience
into Knowledge: II* 40
 - 4/ How Experience Gains Authority 41
2. Living in Human Society 45
 - Commentary 45
 - 5/ Experience and Religion in Contemporary Society 46
 - 6/ Science, Religion, and Society 48
 - 7/ Human Experience and Suffering 51
 - 8/ Contrast Experiences 54
 - 9/ Negative Dialectics and the Humanum 56

3.	Toward a Full Humanity	60
	Commentary	60
10/	The Struggle for a Full Humanity	61
11/	Truth in the Human Context	64
12/	The Quest for Universal Meaning	66
13/	The Relation of Meaning and Truth	67
14/	Human Orientation to the Future	68
15/	A Critical View of Orientation to the Future	70
Part Two: Interpreting Christian Experience		73
1.	Experience and Christian Revelation	75
	Commentary	75
16/	Revelation and Mystery	76
17/	The Experience of Revelation	78
18/	The Structure of Belief Experience	81
19/	The Authority of Christian Experiences of Belief	85
20/	Thinking in Terms of Models	86
2.	Christian Theology and the Theologian	89
	Commentary	89
21/	Theology and Thinking	89
22/	What is Genuine Theology?	91
23/	The Task of the Theologian	91
24/	The Magisterium, Tradition, and Scripture	25
25/	Tension between Theologians and the Magisterium	92
3.	The Interpretive Task of Theology	99
	Commentary	99
26/	Hermeneutics and Theology	100
27/	A Program for the Hermeneutical Enterprise	101

28/	Historicity of Being as the Basis for Hermeneutics	102
29/	Preunderstanding in the Hermeneutical Process	103
30/	The Hermeneutical Circle	103
31/	The Triadic Structure of Understanding	104
4.	From Hermeneutical Theology to Critical Theory	106
	Commentary	106
32/	Hermeneutical Theology and Critical Theory	108
33/	Critical Theory as Emancipative Praxis	112
34/	Ideology and Ideology Critique as Hermeneutics	113
35/	Orthopraxis as a Criterion of Critical Theory	115
36/	Critical Theory, the Church, and Theology	116
37/	Critical Theory, Faith, and the Theologian	118
	Part Three: God's Salvation in Jesus Christ	121
1.	Approaches to Jesus of Nazareth	121
	Commentary	123
38/	A Path through the Book Jesus	124
39/	It Began with an Experience	129
40/	What is the Starting Point?	129
2.	Basic Elements of Jesus's Message and Praxis	133
	Commentary	133
41/	The Context of Jesus' Ministry	133
42/	The Message of Jesus	136
43/	Speaking in Parables	139
44/	The Praxis of the Kingdom	143
45/	Jesus' Relation to God	146

3.	Rejection, Death, and Resurrection	149
	Commentary	149
46/	The Rejection and Death of Jesus	149
47/	The Resurrection	155
4.	Shaping the Experience of the Risen Lord	164
	Commentary	164
48/	Jesus as Eschatological Prophet	164
49/	From a Theology of Jesus to a Christology	169
50/	Is Jesus God?	172
51/	Human Fulfillment in Christ	174
52/	Christology as Eschatology	176
Part Four: The Church: The Community of Grace		179
1.	The Experience of Salvation as Grace	181
	Commentary	181
53/	The Concept of Grace and the Reality of Salvation	181
54/	Basic Elements of the Gospel of Grace	184
55/	New Testament Grace and Theological Categories	190
2.	The Community of Grace	193
	Commentary	193
56/	The Church as a Community of Grace	193
57/	The Church as Sacrament of the World	195
58/	Critical Communities in the Church	200
3.	The Life of Grace in the Church	204
	Commentary	204
59/	Christ the Primordial Sacrament	205
60/	Liturgy and the Struggle for Humanity	208
61/	True Liturgy	210

62/	Eucharistic Presence	212
63/	Marriage in the Life of the Church	214
4.	The Church's Ministry	220
	Commentary	220
64/	Ministry in the Church	221
65/	Criteria of Apostolicity	229
66/	Alternative Practices in Critical Communities	231
67/	Celibacy for Priests	233
68/	Women in Ministry	238
69/	Ministry in the Future	239
	Part Five: The Church in the World Community	243
1.	The Christian and the World	245
	Commentary	245
70/	Dialogue with the World	245
71/	The Church and the Secular City	249
72/	Redemption and Human Emancipation	254
73/	Church, Religion, and World	257
2.	Christian Praxis in the World	260
	Commentary	260
74/	Religion and Ethics	260
75/	Religion and Politics	268
76/	The Christian Connection between Mysticism and Politics	272
	Part Six: The Experience of God: Spirituality	275
	Spirituality	277
	Commentary	277
77/	Our Access to God	277
78/	A Glass of Water (Matt 25:31-46)	281

79/	The Gospel of the Poor (Luke 6:17, 20-26)	284
80/	Thomas Aquinas: Servant of the Word	288
Sources of the Selections		293
A Bibliography of the Writings of Edward Schillebeeckx from 1945 to 1983		297
Indexes		323