

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	11
PERIODICAL ABBREVIATIONS	12
PREFACE	13
I. ANCIENT APHORISTIC WISDOM OF THE JEWS: FOUR MOTIFS	17
A. Order: Retribution and Divine Justice
B. Language: Wise Utterance
C. Authority: Tradition and the Fathers
D. The Individual: Discipline and Self-Control
E. Aphoristic Wisdom of Order and Counter-Order
II. THE APHORISTIC WISDOM OF ORDER	35
A. Cases and the Typical
B. Tradition and Control
C. Representation and Negation of Paradox
III. APHORISTIC WISDOM OF COUNTER-ORDER	47
A. The Individual vs. the General
B. New Experiences vs. Order and Tradition
Excursus: The "Criterion of Dissimilarity"
C. Paradox against Life and Death
IV. A LITERARY-CONCEPTUAL MODEL OF APHORISTIC DISCOURSE	65
A. A Review of Results

- B. Aphoristic Discourse in Modern Literary Criticism
 - (1) Problem of Definition
 - (2) A "Doctrine of Scattered Occasions"
 - (3) Idea Paradises: Gerhard Neumann on Post-Kantian Aphorists
 - (4) The Dual Structure of Aphoristic Discourse: R. H. Stephenson
- Excursus: Aphorism and Proverb
- C. A Literary-Conceptual Model of Aphorism
 - (1) Order, Disorder, Counter-Order
 - (2) Tradition and Skepticism
 - (3) Aphoristic Discourse as Literary-Conceptual

NOTES

To Preface	93
To Chapter I	94
To Chapter II	98
To Chapter III	101
To Chapter IV	104

BIBLIOGRAPHY	113
INDEX OF TEXTUAL REFERENCES	121
INDEX OF MODERN AUTHORS	126