

Contents

List of Charts	xv
Abbreviations	xvii
Preface	xxi

LITERARY-HISTORICAL FOUNDATIONS SYNCHRONIC SOCIAL STRUCTURE (PARTS I—VII)

PART I

BIBLICAL HISTORY AND BIBLICAL SOCIOLOGY

1. Obstacles to a Comprehensive Understanding of Early Israel	3
1.1 The Problem of Sources	4
1.2 The Scandal of Sociological Method	5
2. Complementarity of Humanistic and Sociological Studies of Early Israel	8
3. Aims and Methods: Overview of Contents	18

PART II

THE HISTORICAL STARTING POINT AND A SOURCE COMPENDIUM

4. Evaluating the Historical Sources: Temporal Distance and Cultic-Ideological Roots	25
5. The Historical Subject: Israel in Canaan 1250-1000 B.C.	32
5.1 Patriarchal Episodes	34
5.2 Moses and the Moses Group of Yahwists	35
5.3 The United Monarchy	41
6. Compendium of Historical Sources	45
6.1 Blessings, Songs, and Fable	47
6.2 Centralized Conquest Narratives	48
6.3 Localized Settlement Annals	49
6.4 Inventory of Defeated Kings	50
6.5 Inventory of Tribal Heads and Military Censuses	51
6.6 Narratives of Military "Judges"	52
6.7 Narratives of Military Virtuosi	52

- 6.8 Narrative of an Upstart "King" 53
- 6.9 Notations about Nonmilitary "Judges" 53
- 6.10 Narrative of a Tribal Relocation 53
- 6.11 Narrative of Intertribal Sanction of an Offending Tribe 54
- 6.12 Narratives of Israel's Pre-Davidic Wars with the Philistines 54
- 6.13 Narratives of Relations between Israel and Indigenous Populations 55
- 6.14 Pastoral "Idylls" 56
- 6.15 Territorial, Boundary, and City Lists 56
- 6.16 Theophanic and Covenant Texts 57
- 6.17 Apodictic and Casuistic Laws 58

PART III

THE CULTIC-IDEOLOGICAL FRAMEWORK OF THE SOURCES

- 7. A Preliminary View 63
- 8. Israelite Religious Concepts as "Ideology" 65
- 9. Israelite Religious Practices as "Cult" 67
- 10. Anatomy of the "Historical" Traditions 72
 - 10.1 Structural Elements of the Traditions 73
 - 10.2 Sequential Articulation of the Traditions 79
- 11. Tradition Formation as Sociohistorical Symbolization 83
- 12. Cultic Actions and Cultic Traditions: Exodus-Settlement and Sinai Themes 88
 - 12.1 Separation of Exodus-Settlement and Sinai Themes 88
 - 12.2 Cultic Location of Exodus-Settlement Themes 92
 - 12.3 Sinai Themes: Theophany; Covenant; Law 93
 - 12.4 Cultic Location of Sinai Themes 96
- 13. Cultic Modalities and Narrative Themes: Substructure and Superstructure 100
 - 13.1 Socio-Cultic Matrix of All Themes 100
 - 13.2 Historical Themes Emerge from the Cult 105
 - 13.3 Sinai Themes Emerge from the Cult 110
- 14. Uncentralized Traditions Resistant to the Basic Themes 115
 - 14.1 Tribal Blessings 116
 - 14.2 Hymns or Songs of Triumph 117
 - 14.3 Stories of "Judges": The Terminus of the Centralized Traditions 119

PART IV

THE TRADITION HISTORY AND COMPOSITION OF THE BOOKS OF JOSHUA AND JUDGES

15. Overview of Sources: Joshua and Judges	129
15.1 Contents of the Book of Joshua	130
15.2 Contents of the Book of Judges	134
16. Deuteronomic History and the Old Basic Themes	140
16.1 The Deuteronomic Version of Israel's Early History	140
16.2 Deuteronomic Adaptation to the Moratorium on New Basic Themes	142
16.3 A Watershed between Joshua and Judges	146
17. Pre-Deuteronomic Sources in Joshua and Judges	150
17.1 Joshua 1–12	152
17.2 Joshua 13–19	155
17.3 Judges 1—2:5	163
18. Sociohistoric Sketch of Major Tradition Types	176
18.1 Centralized Conquest Stories	177
18.2 Localized Settlement "Annals"	179
18.3 Land Allotment Traditions	182
18.4 Localized Stories of Victories by "Judges"	184

PART V

MODELS OF THE ISRAELITE SETTLEMENT IN CANAAN

19. A Preliminary View	191
20. The Conquest Model	192
21. The Immigration Model	204
22. The Revolt Model	210
23. Models of the Settlement and Models of the Social System	220
24. Social-Structural Analysis and Comparison: Prospect of Parts VI-IX	228

PART VI

MODELS OF THE SOCIAL STRUCTURE (I): ALL ISRAEL;
TRIBES; PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATIONS; EXTENDED FAMILIES

25. A Preliminary View	237
26. The Comprehensive Social Entity	239
26.1 Israel / Israelites	239

26.2	People / The People	241
26.3	Congregation / Assembly	242
26.4	The Tribes of Israel	243
27.	Primary Subdivisions of the Social Structure		245
27.1	Shēvet / Matteh = Tribe	246
27.2	People / House = Tribe	246
27.3	Mishpāhāh = Tribe	249
27.4	Shēvet = A Tribal Subdivision?	251
27.5	Shēvet as a Territorial and Organizational Unit	253
28.	Secondary Subdivisions of the Social Structure		257
28.1	Mishpāhāh = Protective Association of Families	257
28.2	Size of the Mishpāhāh	267
28.3	' Eleph = Mishpāhāh in Arms	270
28.4	Nonmilitary Uses of ' Eleph	276
28.5	' Eleph and R^evāvāh in Archaic Poetry	278
28.6	Religious Functions of the Mishpāhāh / ' Eleph	282
28.7	' Ammīn and P^elaggōth = Tribal Subdivisions?	284
29.	Tertiary Subdivisions of the Social Structure		285
29.1	Bayith / Bēth-'āv = Extended Family	285
29.2	Bēth-'āv as Metaphor for Mishpāhāh	287
29.3	Bēth-'āv as Metaphor for Shēvet / Matteh	288
29.4	Residency Patterns and Economy of the Bayith / Bēth-'āv	315
30.	Israelite Tribalism: Anthropological and Sociological Commentary		293
30.1	What Is a Tribe?	294
30.2	Cross-Cutting Associations: The Exogamous Clan	298
30.3	Did Israel Possess the Exogamous Clan?	301
30.4	Mishpāhāh / ' Eleph as a Clan Equivalent	315
30.5	Other Cross-Cutting Associations in Israelite Tribes	318
30.6	Israelite Tribal Segmentation and Diffusion of Political Functions	321
30.7	The Historical Peculiarity of Israelite Tribalism	323
30.8	The Formation of Israelite Tribal Structure: "Bottom-up" vs. "Top-Down" Models	327
30.9	Pseudo-Genealogies as Political and Cultural Ideology	334

PART VII

MODELS OF THE SOCIAL STRUCTURE (II):
ALL ISRAEL, AMPHICTYONY OR CONFEDERACY?

31. The Prevailing Amphictyonic Model: Critique and Rebuttal 345
- 31.1 Central Shrine 348
- 31.2 Amphictyonic Council 350
- 31.3 Twelve Amphictyonic Members 352
- 31.4 Limited Merit of the Model 356
32. An Alternative Explanation of "the Twelve-Tribe System" 358
- 32.1 Alleged Normativeness of Twelve Tribes before the Monarchy 358
- 32.2 Levi Omitted: Twelve Tribes as David's Administrative Districts 362
- 32.3 Levi Included: Weakened Functions of the Twelve-Tribe System after Solomon's Administrative Reorganization 367
- 32.4 Summary and Synthesis 374
33. Greek Amphictyony and Israelite Confederacy: Structural-Functional and Sociohistorical Comparisons 376
- 33.1 Structural Levels and Scope of the Entities Compared 377
- 33.2 Organizational Zones of the Entities Compared 383

DIACHRONIC-COMPARATIVE SOCIAL STRUCTURE
SOCIOLOGY OF RELIGION VS. BIBLICAL THEOLOGY (PARTS VIII—XI)

PART VIII

COMPARATIVE SOCIAL SYSTEMS AND ECONOMIC MODES:
THE SOCIOHISTORIC MATRICES OF LIBERATED ISRAEL

34. A Preliminary View 389
35. Egyptian Imperialism and Canaanite Feudalism: The Amarna Age Interlock 391
- 35.1 Hyksos and Canaanite "Feudalism" 391
- 35.2 Egyptian-Canaanite Dominion: Temporal and Territorial Horizons 394
- 35.3 Egyptian-Canaanite Dominion: Internal Dynamics 396
- 35.4 Alleged 'Apiru Revolt against Egyptian-Canaanite Dominion 398
36. The 'Apiru Adaptation in Amarna Canaan 401
37. Philistines as Heirs of Egyptian-Canaanite Dominion 410

37.1 Philistine Dominion in Canaan	410
37.2 The Philistine Challenge to Early Israel	414
37.3 Philistine—Israelite—Canaanite Triangular Relations	417
38. Ammon, Moab, and Edom: Societal Problematics	426
39. The Pastoral Nomadic Model for Early Israel: Critique and Radical Revision	435
39.1 Regnant Theory of Israelite Pastoral Nomadism	435
39.2 Pastoral Nomadism in the Ancient Near East	437
39.3 Evidence for Early Israelite Pastoral Nomadism	448
39.4 Summary and Prospect: Pastoral Nomadism as a Minor Socioeconomic Component in Israelite Tribalism	459
40. Socioeconomic Morphemes in Canaan: Coexistence and Opposition	464
40.1 Complementary Morphemes: Agriculture and Transhumant Pastoralism	465
40.2 Antagonistic Morphemes: Urban Statism and Rural Tribalism	467
41. Post-Amarna Antistatist Social Sector: Convergence and Fragmentation	474
41.1 Toward an Antistatist Coalition: Lines of Convergence	474
41.2 Inhibited Coalition-Building: Fragmented Group Interests	476
41.3 Inhibited Position of the Depressed Peasant Majority	450
41.4 Summary and Synthesis	484

PART IX

A NEW EGALITARIAN CANAANITE SOCIETY:
LIBERATED ISRAEL VIS-A-VIS INDIGENOUS PEOPLES

42. Revolutionary Israel: An Expanded Coalition of Antistatist Social Sectors	489
43. The Path through Elohistic Israel to Yahwistic Israel	493
44. Canaanite Belligerents vis-à-vis Liberated Israel	498
44.1 Alleged Enemies of Israel: Canaan/Canaanite(s) and Other Terms	498
44.2 Actual Enemies of Israel in Early Poetry and Related Texts	503
45. Canaanite Converts, Neutrals, and Allies vis-à-vis Liberated Israel	555
45.1 Conversion: The Local Populace Becomes Israel	556
45.2 Neutrality: The Local Populace Remains Outside Israel	563
45.3 Alliance: The Local Populace Enters Protective Treaty Relations with Israel	751

45.4	Summary and Implications: Status of Non-Israelite Cities in the Israelite Highlands	580
46.	The Israelite Countryside: Heartland of the Yahwistic Socioeconomic Revolution	584
PART X
THE RELIGION OF THE NEW EGALITARIAN SOCIETY: IDEALIST, STRUCTURAL-FUNCTIONAL, AND HISTORICAL CULTURAL-MATERIALIST MODELS
47.	A Preliminary View	591
48.	Religious Idealism: Yahwism as an Autonomous Self-Generative "Faith"	592
48.1	Israelite Religion Severed from Israelite Society	592
48.2	Israelite Society Derived from Israelite Religion	599
48.3	Social Influences on "Nonessential" Features of Israelite Religion	602
49.	Structural Functionalism: Mutual Reinforcement of Yahwism and Social Egalitarianism	608
49.1	Structural-Functional Societal Models	608
49.2	Mono-Yahwism as the Function of Sociopolitical Equality	611
49.3	Sociopolitical Equality as the Function of Mono-Yahwism	618
50.	Historical Cultural Materialism: Yahwism as the Symbolization of Egalitarian Social Struggle	622
50.1	Durkheim: Collective Representations	624
50.2	Weber: Elective Affinity and Co-Determination	627
50.3	Marx: Lawfully Interacting and Evolving Inter-Human Totalities	631
50.4	Priority of Cultural-Material Conditions and Social Struggle: Yahwism as a Societal "Feedback" Servomechanism	642
51.	A Program of Historical Cultural-Material Research into Early Israel	650
51.1	An Economic and Cultural-Material Inventory	650
51.2	Historico-Territorial and Topological Studies	652
51.3	Biblical Archaeology and "the New Archaeology"	653
51.4	Population Size and Distribution	654
51.5	Technological Factors: Iron and Waterproof Plaster—Terracing and Irrigation Systems	655
51.6	The Socioeconomic Shift from Amarna to Israelite Canaan: A Provisional Historical Cultural-Material Hypothesis	660

PART XI

BIBLICAL THEOLOGY OR BIBLICAL SOCIOLOGY?

52. On Affirming and Defining the "Uniqueness" of Israel	667
52.1 Biblical Theology: An Attempt to Mediate the Clash between Historical and Theological Methods	667
52.2 The Common Theology of the Ancient Near East	670
52.3 Common Ancient Near Eastern Concepts of Divine Action in History	671
53. Common High God Paradigms: Ancient Near Eastern and Early Israelite	676
54. Differentiated High God Paradigms: The Early Israelite Mutations	679
55. Socioeconomic Demythologization of Israelite Yahwism	692
56. The Key to Israel's Religion: Idealism or Historical Cultural Materialism?	700
56.1 Yahwism as the Symbolic Expression of the Israelite Socioeconomic Revolution	700
56.2 Israel's Election: Socioreligious Actualities vs. Theological Puzzles	702
56.3 On Being Religious: In Ancient Israel and in the Present Social and Intellectual Climate	703
56.4 Contribution toward Social Change: The Criterion of Religious Symbols and Organizations	705
Appendices	711
A. Notes	713
B. Indices
1. Authors
2. Biblical References
3. Foreign Terms
4. Subjects
Epilogue

List of Charts

1. Early Stage of the Development of Narrative Themes Out of the All-Israelite Cult Modalities, c. 1200–1100/1075 B.C., p. 102.
2. Later Stage of Development of Narrative Themes Out of the All-Israelite Cult Modalities, c. 1100/1075–1050 B.C., p. 103.
3. Israel's Societal Formation on a Bottom-Up Model, p. 330.
4. Israel's Societal Formation on a Top-Down Model, p. 331.
5. A Summary Schematization of Early Israel's Social Structure, pp. 338–341.
6. The Amphictyony Subsumed within Greek Society, pp. 378–379.
7. The Israelite Confederacy Coextensive with Israelite Society, pp. 380–381.