

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: The Political Consequences of a God-Centered Religion	1
1. No Foreigner Can Control Israel: The Wife-Sister Motif Prefigures the Joseph Stories	17
2. Survival Must Not Be Gained through Sin: The Moral of the Joseph Stories Prefigured through Judah and Tamar, Ruth and Naomi, Joseph and Mrs. Potiphar	31
3. The Dreamer Is the Dream	69
4. Fathers, Sons, and Brothers: Joseph and His Family	93
5. The Egyptianization of Joseph Compared to the Hebraicization of Daniel and Esther	119
6. Joseph the Administrator	139
7. If These Are Jacob's Blessings, What Would His Curses Be Like?	163
8. Why Joseph-the-Assimilator Is Superseded by Moses-the-Lawgiver	191
9. The Path Not Taken	209
Index	233