

CONTENTS

General Introduction	vii
About this Commentary	1
Introduction	5
Why the book of Jeremiah is important	5
The structure of the book of Jeremiah	6
The major public events of Jeremiah's lifetime	8
Outline of the book of Jeremiah	9
Materials of which the book is composed	10
The two books of Jeremiah	11
The composition of the book of Jeremiah	12
Scepticism and credulity	13
Commentary	17
Chapters 1–25 Sayings attributed to Jeremiah	17
1.1–3 Introduction to the book	17
1.4–19 Jeremiah's call and first visions	21
2.1–4.4 God's appeal to Israel and Judah	26
4.5–6.30 Threats of imminent destruction	42
7.1–8.3 Jeremiah's temple speech and associated prophecies	53
8.4–10.25 Miscellaneous short oracles	63
11.1–20.18 Judgment; rejection and persecution; the prophet's complaints	75
11.1–17 Judah's covenant-breaking	76
11.18 – 12.6 The first two 'confessions'	80
12.7 – 13.27 Prophecies of doom	85
14.1 – 15.9 Laments on the people's behalf	90
15.10 – 21 Two more 'confessions'	96
16.1 – 17.27 Judgment on Judah – leading to 'confession' number five	98

18.1 – 23	Of potters – leading to ‘confession’ number six	105
19.1 – 20.6	Of pots and persecution	109
20.7 – 18	Jeremiah’s lament – ‘confession’ number seven	110
21.1 – 24.10	Warnings to kings and people	112
21.1 – 10	Zedekiah formally consults the prophet	112
21.11 – 22.30	Condemnations of kings	114
23.1 – 8	Bad and good shepherds	119
23.9 – 40	Condemnations of prophets	121
24.1 – 10	Vision of the good and the bad figs	125
25.1 – 14	Summary of the book so far	128
25.15 – 38	Judgment on foreign nations	129
Chapters 26 – 45 Reports of the Prophet’s Activities		132
26.1 – 24	Again the temple speech: the trial of Jeremiah	132
27.1 – 29.32	Jeremiah opposes false prophets	137
30.1 – 33.26	Promises of restoration for the people	145
34.1 – 39.18	Events under Jehoiakim and Zedekiah	163
34.1 – 22	Address to Zedekiah: release of slaves	163
35.1 – 19	The Rechabites	167
36.1 – 32	The writing of the scroll	169
37.1 – 38.28	During the final siege of Jerusalem: consultations between king and prophet	174
39.1 – 18	The fall of the city	180
40.1 – 45.5	After the capture of Jerusalem	183
Chapters 46 – 51 Prophecies against Foreign Nations		196
46.2 – 28	Oracles against the Egyptians	197
47.1–7	Oracles against the Philistines	200
48.1 – 47	Oracles against the Moabites	202
49.1 – 6	An oracle against the Ammonites	208
49.7 – 22	Oracles against the Edomites	209
49.23 – 27	An oracle against Damascus	211
49.28 – 33	An oracle against Kedar	212
49.34 – 39	An oracle against Elam	213
50.1 – 51.64	Against Babylon	213
Chapter 52 Appendix – The Fall of Jerusalem		226
For Further Reading		230