

CONTENTS

|                                                                                                                                                 |      |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------|
| Preface                                                                                                                                         | vii  |
| Acknowledgments                                                                                                                                 | viii |
| Abbreviations                                                                                                                                   | ix   |
| List of Contributors                                                                                                                            | xiii |
| AMY-JILL LEVINE                                                                                                                             |      |
| Introduction                                                                                                                                    | 1    |
| MARGARET Y. MACDONALD                                                                                                                       |      |
| Early Christian Women Married to Unbelievers                                                                                                    | 14   |
| MARY ANN BEAVIS                                                                                                                             |      |
| ‘If Anyone Will Not Work, Let Them Not Eat’:2 Thessalonians 3.10 and the Social Support of Women                                            | 29   |
| VIRGINIA RAMEY MOLLENKOTT                                                                                                                   |      |
| Emancipative Elements in Ephesians 5.21-33:Why Feminist Scholarship Has (Often) Left ThemUnmentioned, and Why They Should Be Emphasized | 37   |
| ELNA MOUTON                                                                                                                                 |      |
| (Re)Describing Reality? The Transformative Potentialof Ephesians across Times and Cultures                                                  | 59   |
| ANGELA STANDHARTINGER                                                                                                                       |      |
| The Epistle to the Congregation in Colossaeand the Invention of the ‘Household Code’                                                        | 88   |
| DAVID M. SCHOLER                                                                                                                            |      |
| 1 Timothy 2.9-15 and the Place of Womenin the Church’s Ministry                                                                             | 98   |
| JOUETTE M. BASSLER                                                                                                                          |      |
| Limits and Differentiation: The Calculus of Widowsin 1 Timothy 5.3-16                                                                       | 122  |

LILIAN PORTEFAIX

|                                                                                                                             |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 'Good Citizenship' in the Household of God:Women's Position in the Pastorals Reconsideredin the Light of Roman Rule | 147 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

BONNIE THURSTON

|                                                                 |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| 1 Timothy 5.3-16 and Leadership of Womenin the Early Church | 159 |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------|-----|

|                     |     |
|---------------------|-----|
| Bibliography        | 175 |
| Index of References | 190 |
| Index of Authors    | 197 |