

Contents

Preface	ix
1. History of the Synoptic Discussion	1
Four Theories	2
The Utilization Hypothesis	2
The Proto-Gospel Theory	7
The Tradition Hypothesis	9
The Multiple-Source Theory	12
Modern Attitudes and Recent Contributions	16
2. The Distribution of the Material	24
Common Units and Contextual Parallels	25
Alibi Analogies and Special Units	26
Division According to Topographic and Thematic Aspects	30
Synoptic Tables	34
3. The Origin of the Synoptic Material	45
Living Traditions Attested by Luke, Papias, and Ignatius	45
Self-Contained Pericopes and Comprehensive Sequences	47
Impulses from Jerusalem	49
Other Local Aspects	52
Evidence of Three and Two Synoptic Witnesses	56
Parallel Triple Traditions, Mainly Narrative	56
Ambulant Double Traditions, Mainly Didactic	60
Life Setting in Baptism and the Eucharist	65

4.	Part I: Christ's Birth, Childhood, and Baptism	68
	Matt. 1:1—4:17 with Parallels
	Block 1: Christ's Birth and Childhood	68
	Preambles	69
	Narratives	71
	Purpose	78
	Block 2: Christ's Baptism and Related Events	79
	Christ's Baptism	80
	Preliminaries and Consequences	81
	Transition to Galilee	82
5.	Part II: Jesus in Galilee and Adjacent Countries	84
	Matt. 4:18—18:35 with Parallels
	Block 3: Activity in and Near Capernaum	84
	Block 4: Events Before and After the Call of Levi/Matthew	93
	Block 5: Instruction, Discussion, and Parables	102
	Block 6: Excursions in Various Directions	107
	Block 7: Teaching in Capernaum	113
6.	Part III: Jesus in Transjordan and Jerusalem	116
	Luke 9:51—18:14 + Matt. 19:1—28:20 with Parallels
	Block 8: Teaching in Transjordan	117
	Block 9: Teaching in Perea and Activity at Jericho	125
	Block 10: Entry Into Jerusalem, Temple Cleansing, Discussions	127
	Block 11: Farewell Speech on the Mount of Olives	131
	Block 12: Trial, Eucharist, Crucifixion, and Resurrection	139
7.	Matthew, Mark, and Luke as Redactors	150
	The Traditional Titles	150
	Papias on the Origin of the Gospels	155
	Matthew	157
	Mark	161
	Luke	166
	Chronology	174
	Personal Contacts Involved	180
	The Relationship Between Matthew and Mark	181

The Relationship Between Mark and Luke	183
The Relationship Between Matthew and Luke	185
Index of Ancient Authors Quoted as Witnesses	191