

Contents

Preface	ix
1 Introduction to the passion narratives	1
A continuous narrative?	1
The situation in life of the earliest passion narrative	3
Other elements that shaped the earliest passion narrative	3
The passion narrative is 'historical'	4
The synoptic passion narratives have their own perspective	5
2 The arrest of Jesus	6
I. Mark 14:43–52	6
II. Matthew 26:47–56	10
III. Luke 22:47–53	16
3 Jesus before the Sanhedrin and Peter's denial	20
I. Mark 14:53–72; 15:1	20
Introduction (Mk 14:53–55)	20
The false witnesses and the Temple-saying (Mk 14:56–59)	22
Jesus' self-affirmation and the reaction of the Sanhedrin (Mk 14:60–64)	25
The mocking scene (Mk 14:65)	31
The denial of Peter (Mk 14:66–72)	31
Jesus is delivered to Pilate (Mk 15:1)	34
II. Matthew 26:57–75; 27:1–10	35
Introduction (Mt 26:57–60a)	35
The accusation by the false witnesses (Mt 26:60b–61)	37
The interrogation, the answer and the reaction (Mt 26:62–66)	38
The mocking scene (Mt 26:67–68)	41
The denial of Peter (Mt 26:69–75)	42
The conclusion of the Jewish trial (Mt 27:1–2)	44
The fate of Judas (Mt 27:3–10)	46

III.	Luke 22:54–71; 23:1	52
	Introduction (Lk 22:54)	53
	Peter's denial and repentance (Lk 22:55–62)	53
	The mocking by the soldiers (Lk 22:63–65)	56
	The interrogation by the Sanhedrin in the morning (Lk 22:66–71)	58
	The delivery of the prisoner to Pilate (Lk 23:1)	61
4	The trial before Pilate	62
I.	Mark 15:2–20	62
	The initial interrogation by Pilate (Mk 15:2–5)	62
	The Barabbas incident and the death sentence (Mk 15:6–15)	63
	The mocking by the soldiers (Mk 15:16–20)	67
II.	Matthew 27:11–31	68
	The initial interrogation by Pilate (Mt 27:11–14)	68
	The Barabbas incident and the death sentence (Mt 27:15–26)	70
	The mocking by the soldiers (Mt 27:27–31)	76
III.	Luke 23:2–25	79
	The initial interrogation by Pilate (Lk 23:2–5)	79
	The examination before Herod (Lk 23:6–12)	81
	The examination before Pilate resumed and concluded (Lk 23:13–25)	84
5	Crucifixion and death	90
I.	Mark 15:21–41	90
	The requisition of Simon of Cyrene (Mk 15:21)	90
	The crucifixion (Mk 15:22–27)	91
	The mockery (Mk 15:29–32)	93
	The darkness (Mk 15:33–36)	95
	The death of Jesus and its repercussions (Mk 15:37–39)	97
	The mention of the women (Mk 15:40–41)	100
II.	Matthew 27:32–56	101
	The requisition of Simon of Cyrene (Mt 27:32)	101
	The crucifixion (Mt 27:33–38)	102
	The mockery (Mt 27:39–44)	103
	The darkness (Mt 27:45–49)	105
	The death of Jesus and its repercussions (Mt 27:50–54)	107
	The mention of the women (Mt 27:55–56)	113
III.	Luke 23:26–49	114
	The requisition of Simon of Cyrene (Lk 23:26)	114
	The multitude and the women of Jerusalem (Lk 23:27–32)	115
	The crucifixion (Lk 23:33–34)	117
	The mockery (Lk 23:35–38)	118

	The two criminals (Lk 23:39–43)	119
	The darkness and the rending of the Temple curtain (Lk 23:44–45)	122
	The death of Jesus and its repercussions (Lk 23:46–48)	123
	The mention of the acquaintances and the women (Lk 23:49)	126
6	The burial of Jesus	128
I.	Mark 15:42–47	128
II.	Matthew 27:57–61	133
III.	Luke 23:50–56	135
7	Theological and pastoral perspectives	138
I.	Mark	138
II.	Matthew	142
III.	Luke	146
	Conclusion: preaching the passion narratives	149
	Notes	151
	Table	152
	For further reading	177
	General bibliography	179