

Contents

List of tables and figures	xi
Preface	xiii
Acknowledgements	xiv
1 An alternative improvement agenda	1
Swimming against the tide: the premise for the research	1
There is another way	3
The next step: Creating Learning without Limits	7
The unfolding story	13
2 Laying foundations	14
Early days at Wroxham	14
Circle group meetings	16
Learning review meetings	17
Faculty teams	19
Continuing professional development across the school	20
Enlivening learning	21
Conclusion	23
3 Extending freedom to learn	26
Offering choices	26
Listening to children	31
Learning together	34
Open-ended curriculum experiences	38
Involving children in assessing their own learning	42
Extending freedom to learn	45
4 Rethinking learning relationships	48
Challenge, congruence and the 'natural balance'	48
Towards shared understandings	51
Building and communicating acceptance	53
The importance of empathy	59
Maintaining steadfastness of purpose	65
Making connections	67

x CONTENTS

5	Putting learning first: creating a school-wide culture of learning	71
	The leadership role in building a school-wide culture of learning	72
	The stable environment	83
	Building a community of powerful professional learners	86
	Engaging everybody in the school-wide culture of learning	92
	The moral imperative	93
6	The power of collective action	95
	The power to transform learning capacity	95
	A distinctive approach to school improvement	106
	Relevance, applicability and implications	114
	The future in the making: where do we go from here?	123
	Final thoughts	126
	References	128
	Appendix A: How fixed ability thinking can limit learning. Pointers from research	134
	Appendix B: Research approach	136
	Appendix C: Rethinking notions of IQ and 'intelligence'	140
	Index	145

Tables and figures

Tables

1.1	Wroxham staff participating in case studies	13
2.1	Faculty teams: a team approach to subject leadership	19
3.1	Joint planning by Year 2 children and their class teacher	32
5.1	Dispositions that increase capacity for professional learning	88
6.1	Principles governing leadership strategies	99
6.2	Building the dispositions characteristic of powerful autonomous learners	101
6.3	Four distinctive features of school development at Wroxham	112

Figures

1.1	A practical, principled, pedagogical model	6
3.1	The role of a shared language for learning	45
5.1	The range of strategies used in building a school-wide culture of learning	74
6.1	Creating learning without limits: a model of school development	97
6.2	Forces affecting learning capacity	98
6.3	Transforming learning capacity: the creative consensus around extending freedom to learn	103
6.4	Using questions as a starting point for monitoring and accountability	111