

Introduction

006

Research – what and why?

008

What is a brief?

010

What is research?

012

What should research contain?

014

Who are you designing for?

030

Exercise 1: Brainstorming

032

Interview: Alice Palmer

034

Interview: Wendy Dagworthy

036

Interview: Alexander Lamb

037

Interview: Daniel Pollitt

040

Choosing what to research

044

Choosing a theme

046

What are primary sources?

048

What are secondary sources?

049

Sources of inspiration

050

Exercise 2: Recycled garment manipulation

061

Interview: Dr Noki

074

Interview: Richard Sorger

076

Compiling your research

080

The sketchbook

082

Techniques for drawing

084

Collage

086

Juxtaposition and deconstruction

088

Cross-referencing

090

Analysis of research

092

Focus on key elements

094

Exercise 3: Focus research pages

095

Moodboards

096

Sketchbook examples

098

Interview: Omar Kashoura

104

Interview: Jenny Packham

106

Designing from your research

110

Bridging the gap

112

Exercise 4:

Collaged research on figures

113

Model and drape

114

Photomontage with drapery

116

Design development elements

118

Exercise 5:

Working with the colour wheel

125

Market levels in fashion

138

Exercise 6:

Design development 1

142

Refinement of individual garments

143

Exercise 7:

Design development 2

144

Selecting ideas to form a collection

145

Interview: WGSN

146

Interview: Julien Macdonald

148

Communicating your ideas

152

Drawing for design

154

Templates

156

Exercise 8:

Creating a design development six-figure template

157

Illustrating with collage

158

Art materials

160

Illustration

162

Working drawings

163

Layout and composition

164

Beyond the drawing board

166

Interview: David Downton

168

Interview: Caryn Franklin

170

Glossary

172

Online resources

174

Bibliography

176

Student resources

178

Index

180

Acknowledgements and credits

184

Working with ethics

185