

ETHAN WAGNER &
THEA WESTREICH WAGNER

Collecting Art for Love, Money and More

- | | | |
|----|--|--|
| 7 | The thrills
of collecting art | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – What drives the art collector? – The rewards of collecting art – When collecting becomes an obsession – The pleasure of possessing art – The desire to share – The rise of private exhibition spaces |
| 29 | Personal taste and knowledge | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The importance of personal taste – The act of looking – Developing a relationship with art |
| 43 | The craze for collecting contemporary art | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Art and luxury – The online contemporary art market – Supporting artists' work – Intellectual engagement – Identifying significant work – Buying with conviction |
| 59 | Collecting on a budget | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Buying early in an artist's career – Collecting with limited means – Making informed choices – Market speculation |
| 73 | Art and money/
Money and art | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Price as an indicator of artistic value – Art as commodity – The developing art market – Art market trends – Belief in market authority – Ensuring access to the best – Investor or collector? – Buying with acumen – Approaches to investing in art – Pros and cons of art as investment |
| 95 | The vicissitudes of the art market | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The international art market – Price distortion – Geography's influence on market value – Gallery representation – Supply and demand – The influence of star collectors – The impact of personality |

115	The relevance of critical writing	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The purpose of criticism – The nature of critical discourse – Informing and elucidating – Criticism disempowered – Evaluative criticism – Criticism today
131	Public exhibitions and curatorial practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The rise of biennials – Curatorial practice and independent curating – Showcases of the present – Biennials vs. commercial fairs – An artist's perspective – Acquisition opportunities – The rise of the new museums – Temporary exhibitions and Kunsthallen
153	Navigating the art market	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The importance of commercial galleries – Primary market dealing – The twentieth-century gallery scene – Embracing the new – Collecting established artists – Collecting emerging artists – Identifying key galleries – Right show, wrong gallery – The opportunity to see other artists' work – International art fairs – The secondary market – Emerging artists at auction – Knowing when to stop
177	Building a great collection	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Focusing a collection – Subject matter or conceptual framework – Patronage and philanthropy – Informed opinions – The lucky strike – The importance of curiosity – Developing relationships with artists – Learning from artists

AFTERWORD

197

FURTHER READING

201

ENDNOTES

198

INDEX

202