

Contents

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction: Scope and Shape of Things to Come 1

- 1 The Art World: Beuys in a Contemporary Context 5
 - Redefining Joseph Beuys through Redefinitions of Modern Art
 - A Physiognomy for the Art of Joseph Beuys
 - Joseph Beuys, the Pseudoevent, and the Heroic Myth
 - Joseph Beuys on Stage as The Chief

- 2 The Performance Piece: A Functional Context 25
 - A Background for Beuys: The Origins of Performance Art
 - A Precedent for Beuys: The Wagnerian Gesamtkunstwerk
 - A Context for Beuys: The Early Modernist Performance Piece
 - A Stage for Beuys: The Late Modernist Performance Piece
 - A Soapbox for Beuys: The Fluxus Movement

- 3 Beuys in an Esoteric Modernist Context 51
 - Rauschenberg and Johns: Art into Nature into Art
 - Magic and Alchemy in “Impoverished Art”
 - Late Modernist Neoprimitivism
 - From Classical Primitivism to Occult Ancient Wisdom
 - Occultism in Contemporary Culture and Art
 - Joseph Beuys and Paperback Shamanism

- 4 Beuys in an Esoteric German Context 83
 - A Native Element: The Völkische Component
 - Germany’s New Völkische History of Art
 - Völkische* Art and Life When Beuys Was a Boy
 - Esoterica in Modern Germany

5	The Beuys-Steiner Connection	105
	Joseph Beuys's Close Encounters with Rudolf Steiner
	Rudolf Steiner, a Spiritual Pseudoscientist
	The Shared Cosmologies of Steiner and Beuys
	The Heated Historical Evolution of Steiner's Cosmos
6	Beuys's Anthroposophical Imagery	127
	The Ur -Evolution of Joseph Beuys
	The Artistic Evolution of Joseph Beuys
	Joseph Beuys's Apian-Anthroposophical Symbolism
	Joseph Beuys's Anthroposophical Illustrations
	Joseph Beuys, an Anthroposophical Messiah
7	Deeper Yet into Anthroposophy	149
	An Anthroposophical Theory of Sculpture
	"How to Explain Pictures to a Dead Hare"
	Eurythmy and Anthroposophical Performance Art
	The World Mission of the Anthroposophical Artist
	The Anthroposophical Educator
	Politics and Anthroposophy
	Epilogue	179
	Notes	185
	Bibliography	215
	Index	225