

CONTENTS

	Page
PREFACE	iii
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	ix
INTRODUCTION	1
The Rise of Genre Painting	2
The Reflection of Nationalism in Art	7
Idealism and Genre Painting.	15
The Convergence of Nationalism and Idealism in Genre Painting.	16
The Emergence of Eastman Johnson	19
CHAPTER I: BEGINNINGS AND AN ECLECTIC EUROPEAN TRAINING: 1840–1855	21
Early Training	21
Johnson’s Move to Düsseldorf	31
Johnson’s Work on Leutze’s Washington Crossing the Delaware	34
Johnson’s Move to the Hague and Paris	40
CHAPTER II: RETURN TO THE UNITED STATES AND THE SEARCH FOR AMERICAN ROOTS	45
Johnson’s Visit to Lake Superior	45
Return to Washington	47
Johnson’s Second Trip to Lake Superior and His Sketches of the Chippewa	48
Johnson’s Paintings of Mount Vernon	54
Life in the South (Old Kentucky Home)	55
Subsequent Paintings of Blacks.	60
CHAPTER III: THE NEW YORK ART SCENE IN THE 1860s	66
Opportunities to Sell and to Exhibit Paintings.	66
The Social and Professional Aspects of Johnson’s Career.	68
Artists’ Studios in the 1860s.	69
Artists’ Receptions	72
The National Academy of Design	74
Social Clubs for Artists and Their Patrons	75

	Page
CHAPTER IV: THE SEARCH FOR GENRE THEMES IN THE 1860s	79
The Civil War	79
The Priority of Subject Matter.	84
Rural Work	86
Home Life and Sentiment	92
Johnson's Paintings of Children	95
Other Genre Painters of the 1860s and Winslow Homer	98
CHAPTER V: THE AMERICAN OUTDOOR PANORAMA OF THE 1860s	102
The Maple Sugar Camp Series	102
Other Landscapes at the End of the 1860s and Marriage	109
CHAPTER VI: THE FAMILY PORTRAIT	112
The Emergence of the Conversation Piece in Europe and Great Britain.	112
The Conversation Piece in America	115
The Blodgett Family of 1864	117
The Brown Family of 1869	118
The Hatch Family of 1871	121
The Funding Bill —An Enlarged Conversation Piece	125
CHAPTER VII: PAINTINGS OF THE 1870s: A CHANGE OF STYLE AND NEW THEMES	127
The Old Stage Coach of 1871	127
The Oil Sketch and Couture's Influence	129
A Lighter Palette and New Outdoor Themes	135
Johnson's Relation to Homer and the Impressionists	137
Light as Accent and Symbol in Johnson's Interiors of the 1870s.	140
Barn Scenes of the Late 1870s.	142
CHAPTER VIII: THE NANTUCKET PANORAMA: CORNHUSKING BEES AND CRANBERRY HARVESTS	144
Summers on Nantucket	144
Cornhusking Bee of Nantucket.	146
The Cranberry Picking Studies.	149
CHAPTER IX: RUSTIC INTERIORS OF THE 1870s, OLD MEN, AND THE CONCLUSION OF A CAREER	155
Old Sea Captains in Nantucket Interiors	155
Johnson's Drawings	157
Literary Subjects	158
Paintings of "Yankee Character"	159
The End of a Career.	164

	Page
CONCLUSION: CONTEMPORARY AND LATER ASSESSMENTS	167
Shifts of Taste and Johnson's Changing Reputation.	167
Johnson's Reputation in the 20th Century	174
Summary: Eastman Johnson in Perspective.	176
SELECTED BIBLIOGRAPHY	179
ILLUSTRATIONS	191