

CONTENTS

PREFACE	5
ABBREVIATIONS	10
INTRODUCTION	11
1. The Scope of Nineteenth Century Internationalism	11
2. The Machinery of International Co-operation	18
PART I: ECONOMIC CO-OPERATION	37
1. Communications	38
(a) The Telegraphic Union	39
(b) The Radiotelegraphic Union	42
(c) The Universal Postal Union	43
2. Transport	48
(a) The Railways	48
(b) Road Transport	52
(c) International Rivers	53
(d) International Shipping	64
(i) International Machinery	65
(ii) The Regulation of Life and Commerce at Sea	71
3. Agriculture	88
(a) The International Institute of Agriculture	91
(b) The International Sugar Union	103
4. Industry and Trade	110
(a) The Private Sector	110
(i) International Cartels	112
(ii) Industrial Federations	117
(iii) The International Chamber of Commerce	119
(b) The Response of Governments	121
(i) The Metric Union	121
(ii) The Publication of Tariffs	124
(iii) The Protection of Industrial, Literary and Artistic Property	126

PART II. LABOUR AND INTERNATIONALISM.	135
1. The International Protection of Labour	135
2. International Trades Unionism	157
3. The Workers' Internationals	164
(a) The First International	164
(b) The Second International	179
4. The International Co-operative Alliance	190
 PART III: INTELLECTUAL AND RELIGIOUS CO-OPERATION	 201
1. Intellectual Co-operation.	201
(a) Channels of Communication.	202
(b) The Quest for an International Language	208
(c) The Development of International Law	215
(d) International Scientific Collaboration	223
(e) The Prevention of Epidemics	237
2. The Churches and Internationalism	245
(a) International Organization.	246
(b) Origins of the Modern Ecumenical Movement.	252
 PART IV: THE HUMANITARIAN IMPULSE	 263
1. The Growth of an International Social Conscience	263
2. The Campaign against the White Slave Traffic	274
3. The Abolition of the African Slave Trade.	286
4. The Red Cross and the "Humanisation" of War	295
 PART V: THE PEACE MOVEMENT	 309
1. Religion and Free Trade.	309
2. Regrouping	319
3. Expansion	325
4. Die Waffen Nieder.	330
5. The Nobel Peace Prize	334
6. The First Hague Peace Conference.	338
7. Towards Catastrophe	354
 CONCLUSION	 363

CONTENTS

9

APPENDIXES

1. The International Drug Traffic	371
2. The International World of Sport	381
SELECT BIBLIOGRAPHY	395
INDEX	396