

Contents

| | |
|------------------|-----|
| Acknowledgements | vii |
| Introduction | ix |

PART ONE. THE DOMINICAN ORDER AND LEARNING

| | |
|---|---|
| 1. The Formative Period for Dominican Education | 3 |
| A. Preachers in Toulouse, 1215-1217 6 □ B. The Order of Preachers and the Mission Beyond Toulouse 24 □ C. The Era of Constitution-Making: The Order's Ancient Educational Legislation 36 □ D. The Mandate of the Early Bulls of Recommendation 47 □ E. The Essential Conservatism of Early Dominican Education 54 | |

PART TWO. THE INSTITUTIONAL FACE OF DOMINICAN EDUCATION THE SCHOOLS AND THEIR CURRICULA

| | |
|---|-----|
| 2. The Formation of Novices | 75 |
| A. The Requirements for Entrance 79 □ B. Pre-Postulancy Schools for Boys 85 □ C. Novices and the Discipline of the Cloister 97 □ D. The Cultivation of a New Interior Life 111 □ E. Later Novitiate Houses 126 | |
| 3. Dominican Conventual Education and the Training of the Fratres communes | 130 |
| A. The Dominican Convent and its Schola 132 □ B. Lectures 134 □ C. Disputations 167 □ D. Repetitions 175 □ E. The Conventual School-Year in the Roman Province 178 □ F. The Making of the Preacher 184 □ G. The Making of the Confessor 193 □ H. Elias de Ferreriis and Conventual Education in the Houses of Toulouse 204 | |
| 4. Provincial Studia | 219 |
| A. Studia artium 220 □ B. The "Arts" Course 238 □ C. Studia naturarum 252 □ D. The Natural Philosophy Course 267 □ E. Studia particularis theologiae 277 □ F. The Theology Course Designed by Thomas Aquinas at Santa Sabina 278 □ G. Further Development of the | |

