

Contents

Figures and tables	xi
About the editor	xv
1 Introduction to private equity for accountants	1
By Mariya Stefanova
History of private equity	1
How to define private equity	4
Open-ended versus closed-end funds	6
Limited-life versus evergreen funds	6
Regulation and private equity	7
Private equity as part of alternative investment asset classes	8
Liquidity	9
Value creation	9
The J-Curve	10
Conclusion	11
2 Private equity structures and types of funds	13
By Mariya Stefanova
Private equity fund structures	13
Legal form and choice of jurisdiction	14
European versus US funds	15
Similarities and differences between English and US limited partnerships	16
Typical vanilla UK versus US fund structures	17
Types of funds and similarities and differences in terms of accounting	21
Summary	24
3 Why is private equity accounting different?	25
By Mariya Stefanova
Introduction	25
Legal form - limited partnership (or equivalents)	26
Limited partnership agreement	27
Fund purpose, activities and structure	27
Accounting frameworks and 'investor-defined accounting framework' (LPA GAAP)	31
Summary	32

The limited partnership agreement explained	33
By Mariya Stefanova
What is an LPA?	33
Summary	42
Fund lifecycle	45
By Mariya Stefanova
Introduction stage	45
Hypothetical example of a new-fund launch	47
Growth stage	51
Maturity stage	52
Summary	53
Initial, subsequent and final closings, rebalancing & equalisation	55
By Mariya Stefanova
What is a close or closing?	55
Subsequent or additional and multiple closings	56
What are the implications of subsequent closings for the investors?	57
Equalisation	57
Rebalancing	65
Summary	67
Drawdowns	69
By Mariya Stefanova
The definition of a drawdown/capital call	69
Where are the drawdown rules stipulated?	69
Content of the drawdown notice	70
ILPA Private Equity Principles	71
What happens in terms of processes?	71
Drawdown date	73
Capital contributions	74
Loan contributions	75
Drawdown calculation	76
Net drawdowns	78
Accounting implications - the impact on financial statements	79
Treatment of partners' capital under IFRS	81
Summary	82
Partner transfers	85
By Mariya Stefanova
What is a partner transfer?	85
Vital documents to record transactions properly	86
Accounting implications	87
Partner transfers in specialist private equity accounting systems	87
Some complications and possible reasons	91
Summary	92

Investments	93
By Mariya Stefanova
IFRS - where do we stand?	93
Basis of measurement for investments	95
Convergence between IFRS and US GAAP	97
IFRS 13 and FASB ASC 820	97
Consolidation exemption	99
Fair value of investments and investment revaluations	100
Recent developments and future trends	111
IFRS 9 Financial Instruments	112
Summary	112
Valuations - the accountant's perspective	113
By David L. Larsen, Duff & Phelps LLC
Introduction	113
Investment valuations within accounts and investor reports	114
Valuing portfolio companies - overview	114
Valuing portfolio companies - commonly used valuation methodologies	116
Enterprise value	117
Using enterprise value to determine equity values	117
Debt valuation	121
Valuing fund interests	123
Conclusion	124
Expenses and income	125
By Mariya Stefanova
Introduction	125
Most common types of expenses, provisions and limitations in the LPA	126
Transaction, monitoring/directors' and other fees earned by the manager	128
Income	128
Net income (loss)	129
Allocations of income and expenses (net income)	129
Accounting for/recognition of income and expenses	129
IFRS	130
UK GAAP	132
US GAAP	134
Summary	136
Management fee versus priority profit share	137
By Mariya Stefanova
General principles and future trends	137
Management fee versus priority profit share	138
What is the rationale for the priority profit share?	139
Management fee/PPS calculation	139
Management fee calculation - an example	141
Accounting treatment	145
Summary	156

Distributions	157
By Mariya Stefanova
What is a distribution?	157
Where are the rules of the distributions stipulated?	157
What are the different types of distributions?	158
Timing of the distributions	158
Limitations on distributions	159
Distribution notices	159
Distribution calculation	161
Accounting implications and impact on the financial statements	163
The fund of funds perspective on distributions	167
Distributions in specie	168
Distribution processes	168
Final distributions	169
Re-investment (recycling) of distributions	169
Summary	169
Carried interest	171
By Mariya Stefanova
Carried interest: substance and legal form	171
Why is it called carried interest?	171
UK and US tax aspects of carried interest	172
Carry participants	173
Types of carried interest models	173
Carried interest modelling - useful advice	179
Definition of a waterfall	180
Clawback provisions	180
Accounting treatment for carried interest	181
Summary	187
Fund financial statements	189
By Mariya Stefanova
Private equity fund financial statements	189
Financial statements formats	190
IFRS	190
IAS 1 presentation of financial statements	191
UK GAAP	202
US GAAP	205
Summary	208
More about allocations	211
By Gaurav Marwah, Augentius Fund Administration LLP
Introduction	211
Partners' accounts structure	212
Standard allocation criteria and rules	214
Other important considerations	219
Conclusion	221

Consolidation	223
By Angela Crawford-Ingle, Ambre Partners
Background	223
The consolidation debate	224
Consolidation of the fund	224
Consolidation into the fund manager	225
Investor reporting	226
US GAAP	227
IFRS	227
Country GAAP and fund-defined requirements	233
Concluding observations	234
Performance measurement - is it all about IRRs?	237
By Alistair Hamilton, Inflexion Private Equity Partners LLP
Performance measurement of individual funds	237
Performance measurement of fund managers	242
Performance measurement of investee-companies in private equity funds	244
Conclusion	246
Reporting requirements for investor relations purposes	249
By Monika Nachyla
Introduction	249
Reporting requirements for investor relations purposes	252
Industry best practice - EVCA reporting guidelines	257
Portfolio performance	258
Accounting - possible new solutions	258
Summary	262
Private equity accounting - the auditor's perspective	265
By Nat Harper, KPMG LLP
Introduction	265
Read, understand and implement the LPA	266
Priority profit share	266
Knowing what investments the fund owns	269
Income recognition	270
Spreadsheets	270
Carried interest	271
Valuations of investments	273
LLP accounting	275
Placement agent fees	275
Asymmetric allocations	280
Related-party disclosures in the manager's financial statements	280
Summary	280

Appendix I

Private equity fund structuring

283

By Private Funds Group, Clifford Chance LLP

Introduction	285
Basic structuring considerations	285
Types of vehicles	286
The limited partnership and fund for joint account	286
The corporate taxable fund vehicle	300
Corporate tax-exempt fund vehicles	305
Specific investor issues	307
Conclusion	309

Appendix II

Sample drawdown notice

311

Sample drawdown notice	313
Fax confirmation for receipt of drawdown notice	315

Appendix III

Sample distribution and drawdown notices

317

Appendix IV

Key dates in fair-value reporting of alternative assets

323

Appendix V

327