

Table of content

List of contributors	VII
List of abbreviations	IX
Advances in weak referentiality Ana Aguilar-Guevara, Bert Le Bruyn & Joost Zwarts	I
Modal inferences in marked indefinites: The case of German irgend -indefinites Maria Aloni & Angelika Port	17
Epistemic and scopal properties of some indefinites Tania Ionin	45
Antonymic prepositions and weak referentiality Tibor Kiss & Claudia Roch	73
Weak referentiality and Russian instrumental nominals Lidia Bogatyreva & M. Teresa Espinal	101
Predicate nominals in Papiamentu: A comparison with Brazilian Portuguese and other languages Cristina Schmitt & Ellen-Petra Kester	129
Many a plural Eric Mathieu	157
Telic definites and their prepositions: French and Serbian Tijana Ašić & Francis Corblin	183
How weak and how definite are Weak Definites? Florian Schwarz	213
Modified weak definites Ana Aguilar-Guevara & Maartje Schulpen	237
Functional frames in the interpretation of weak nominals Joost Zwarts	265
Unscrambling the lexical nature of weak definiteness Peter de Swart & Geertje van Bergen	287

Inalienable possession: The semantics of the definite article Bert Le Bruyn	311
Basque nominals: From a system with bare nouns to a system without Urtzi Etxeberria	335
Referential properties of definites and salience spreading Petra B. Schumacher & Hanna Weiland	365
Index	389