

CONTENTS

Preface	page v
Introduction	I
CHAPTER
I William Hogarth	20
II The Royal Academy	30
III Richard Wilson and his Contemporaries	36
IV Sir Joshua Reynolds	48
V Thomas Gainsborough	66
VI Influence of Foreigners on English Art	74
VII First History Painters of the English School	80
VIII George Romney and Joseph Wright of Derby	96
IX Henry Fuseli and Historic Art	109
X The Successors of Reynolds	118
XI The Animal Painters of the Eighteenth Century	134
XII Painters in Water-Colours	145
XIII The School of Miniature Painters	164
XIV Book Illustrators and Designers	179
XV The Water-Colour Societies	192
XVI The Founders of the Water-Colour Society	198
XVII Sir Thomas Lawrence	215
XVIII The Contemporaries of Lawrence	234
XIX Joseph Mallord William Turner	251
XX Howard, Hilton, Haydon and Etty	271
XXI Genre Painting	288
XXII David Wilkie	308
XXIII William Mulready and Thomas Webster	320
XXIV Leslie, Newton and Egg	333
XXV Old Crome and the Norwich School	347
XXVI Early Victorian Portrait Painters	358
XXVII Constable and other Landscape Painters	365

CHAPTER

XXVIII	Later Landscape Painters	page 384
XXIX	John Martin and Ideal Landscape	393
XXX	Richard Parkes Bonington and Others	404
XXXI	Animal and Marine Painters	415
XXXII	The School of Water-Colour Painters	425
XXXIII	Institutions affecting the Spread of Art	451
XXXIV	Fresco-Painting and State Patronage	459
XXXV	Maclise and some other Royal Academicians	469
XXXVI	William Dyce and Schools of Design	479
	Plates	489
	List of Plates and Tailpieces	587
	Bibliographical Index	595
	Index to Plates	613

Our Library Table. Wood-engraving by George Cruikshank, with his Self-Portrait, 1842.