

Contents

Each of the sections listed in this table contains activities for elementary and intermediate level students; some are suitable for beginners. Detailed information about level, language areas practised, preparation and time required can be found at the start of each activity.

Introduction	6
I Ice-breakers exercises aimed at warming-up your class, getting to know them and their names	11
II Student Questionnaires and Interviews techniques for getting students to practise asking questions	27
III Present Simple activities to practise the present simple tense in declarative, negative and interrogative forms adverbs of frequency spatial prepositions	39
IV Past Simple	46
V Past and Present Simple	56
VI Other Tenses continuous tenses perfect tenses future tenses would/used to for past habit imperatives	61
VII Conditionals, Passives and Reported Speech	76

VIII	Adverbs, Adjectives and Pronouns	89
	including comparatives and superlatives
IX	Quantifiers	98
	how much, how many etc.
	some, a few, a lot etc.
X	Other Grammar Areas	102
	spatial prepositions
	so do I, so have I, neither do I etc.
	verbs with infinitives
	verbs with gerunds
	borrow v. lend
XI	Free Work	112
	self-expression exercises without specified structural aims	