

Contents

PREFACE	ix
LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS	xvii
I. CHAUCER'S ATTITUDE TOWARD ASTROLOGY	3
1. The Nature of Belief	3
2. Chaucer's Comments in the Treatise on the Astrolabe	12
3. The Debate about Predestination	21
7 4. Augustinian and Boethian Ideas About Fate and Astrology	29
5. Fourteenth-Century Views of Astrology	37
6. Artistic Expressions of Providence, Astrology, and Free Will	44
II. CONVENTIONS AND POSSIBILITIES OF ASTROLOGY	51
1. Church Decoration and Astrology	51
2. Dante's Metaphorical Cosmology	57
3. Astrology and Mythology	62
4. Astrology and Mythology in the Knight's Tale and Troilus and Criseyde	69
5. Astrology as a Rhetorical Device	78
III. THE COMPLAINT OF MARS	103
1. Historical Allegory	103
2. Versions of the Mars and Venus Story	108
3. Astrological Significance of the Conjunction	115
4. The Myth and the Mythographers	120
5. Iconographic Treatments of Mars and Venus	130
6. The Proem to the Complaint	141
7. The Astrological Section of the Poem	146
8. The Complaint of the Complaint	154
IV. THREE ASTROLOGICAL CRUXES	161
1. The April Date in the General Prologue	161
2. The Wife of Bath's Horoscope	172
3. Troilus Among the Spheres: A Survey and a Suggestion	180

Contents

V. ASTROLOGY IN THE MAN OF LAW'S TALE	192
1. The Narrator, Providence, and Romance	192
2. Attitudes in the Headlink and the Prologue	199
3. The Narrator, Bernard Silvestris, and Astral Determinism	208
4. The Horoscope	219
5. Chaucer, The Man of Law, and the Treatment of the Sources	234
6. Providence, Means, and Ends	241
Ⓟ VI. TIME AND TIDE IN THE FRANKLIN'S TALE	245
1. Mediaeval Tidal Theory and the Disappearance of the Rocks	245
2. Science, Magic, and "Gentilesse"	259
VII. THE PARSON'S PROLOGUE	272
1. The Time of Day and the Sign of Libra	272
2. The Symbolism of Libra	280
3. The Significance of the Scales and the Crucifixion	287
APPENDIX. THE WORKINGS OF ASTROLOGY: "BREDE AND MILKE FOR CHILDEREN"	298
INDEX	307