

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Introduction	1
1 How pleasant to meet Mr Fielding: The Narrator as Hero in Tom Jones W. B. Hutchings	9
2 'Where then lies the difference?': The (Ante)Postmodernity of Tristram Shandy Jayne Lewis	21
3 Old Mortality : Editor and Narrator Mary Wedd	37
4 Mathilda – Who Knew Too Much Frederick Burwick	47
5 'Perswasion' in Persuasion Jane Stabler	55
6 Wuthering Heights as Bifurcated Novel Frederick Burwick	69
7 Negotiating Mary Barton Richard Gravil	87
8 Nell, Alice and Lizzie: Three Sisters amidst the Grotesque Alan Shelston	101
9 The Androgyny of Bleak House Richard Gravil	123

viii CONTENTS

10	Middlemarch and 'the Home Epic' Nicola Trott	139
11	The Ghost of Doubt: Writing, Speech and Language in Lord Jim Gerard Barrett	159
12	Liking or Disliking: Woolf, Conrad, Lawrence Michael O'Neill	169
	Endnotes	181
	Notes on Contributors	199
	Index	201