

CONTENTS

List of plates	page vi
Preface	vii
Notes on the Badges and Armorial Bearings	xi
Arms and Badges	xii-xiii
Acknowledgements	xiv

PART I. PLAYERS AND SOCIETY

I.	From Minstrel to Comedian; the Actor's Art, 1300-1572	17
II.	The New Estate. Social Status of the Common Player in London, 1559-1603; the Rise of Leicester's Men, and the Founding of the Theatre.	39
III.	Attack and Defence, 1577-1615; and the Rise of the Player-Poets.	67
IV.	The Creation of the Common Audience.	96
V.	The Poet's Art and the Player's Quality; the Integration of Drama and the Rise of Tragedy.	119

PART II. COMMON PLAYERS, 1575-1600

VI.	Leicester's Men at Kenilworth; Laneham's Letter. Afterword, 1978	141
VII.	The Queen's Livery; Richard Tarlton.	162
VIII.	The Queen's Livery; Robert Wilson.	178
IX.	Master of the Royal Game; Edward Alleyn.	194

PART III. HOUSEHOLD PLAYERS, 1574-1606

X.	The Livery and the Surplice; the Rise and Fall of the Choristers' Theatres in London, 1574-1606.	211
----	--	-----

PART IV. ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE, 1559-1607

XI.	Drama as Offering; the Queen's Summer Welcomes and Christmas Revels.	243
XII.	The Private Audience; Collegiate Revels at the University.	265
Epilogue	282	Table of Dates, 1558-1616 284
Notes	288	Index 315