

Contents

Acknowledgements	page 7
1 The Roman Verse Satirists and their Reputation	11
Horace – Juvenal – the reputation of the Roman satirists during the Renaissance
2 The Elizabethan Satyr-Satirist	45
The survival of ‘Complaint’ – the ‘sour and crabbed face’ of Juvenal – formal satire of the 1590s
3 Commonwealth and Restoration Satire	73
Heraclitus’ tears – the neoclassical Horace – Cleveland and Oldham: extremists vs extremists – Butler and Rochester: low-style satire – Dryden: mock-heroic, heroic and fine raillery
4 The 18th-Century Horace: Pope and Swift	119
Good-humoured satire: Young’s Love of Fame – Pope and Swift
5 The 18th-Century Juvenal: Dr Johnson and Churchill	153
Dr Johnson’s imitations of Juvenal – Charles Churchill
Notes and References	176
A Reading List	186
Index	187