

Contents

Preface

SECTION ONE— TILL WE HAVE FACES: THE WORK ITSELF

I	Introduction: The Background	2
II	Part I, Chapters 1–2: Methods, Motives, Materialism	9
III	Chapters 3–5: Of Divine Mysteries and Sacrifice	19
IV	Chapters 6–7: Love and Longing	27
V	Chapters 8–11: Believing and Perceiving	35
VI	Chapters 12–15: Seeing and Knowing	47
VII	Chapters 16–20: Loving, Hating, Hiding	53
VIII	Chapter 21: The Myth and the Retelling	61
IX	Part II, Chapters 1–4: “Real Life is Meeting”	69

SECTION TWO— TILL WE HAVE FACES: THE WORK IN CONTEXT

X	Poet of the Teens and Twenties: The Struggling Imagination	88
XI	Critic and Story-Writer of the Thirties: Imagination as Servant	108
XII	Apologist of the Forties: Reason as Master	128
XIII	Autobiographer of the Fifties: Reason and Imagination Reconciled	148

Contents

XIV	Personal Writer of the Sixties: Reason and Imagination United	163
	Notes	183
	Table for Converting Page References to Chapter Numbers	203