

James Gould Cozzens

New Acquist of True Experience

Edited by
Matthew J. Bruccoli

Southern Illinois University Press

Carbondale and Edwardsville

Feffer & Simons, Inc.

London and Amsterdam

Contents

Notes on Contributors	ix
Introduction	xi
Matthew J. Bruccoli
1 The Complex World of James Gould Cozzens	1
Louis Coxe
2 James Gould Cozzens: The Condition of Modern Man	15
John William Ward
3 Cozzens and the Conservative Spirit	29
Pierre Michel
4 Moral Realism: The Development of an Attitude	44
Robert Scholes
5 The Title of The Last Adam	63
Colin S. Cass
6 Guard of Honor : Providential Luck in a Hard-Luck World	81
R. H. W. Dillard
7 The Particularity of Guard of Honor	92
R. V. Cassill
8 The Novelist as Professional	99
Bernard De Voto
9 Nomination for a Nobel Prize	102
John Fischer
10 Henry Dodd Worthington: The "I" in Morning Noon and Night	111
Leland H. Cox, Jr.
11 Statements on James Gould Cozzens	127
Malcolm Cowley, James Dickey, Orville Prescott, Joseph Slatter, C. P. Snow, Edward Weeks, Jerome Weidman
Notes	137
The Publications of James Gould Cozzens	142