

Faulkner's Discourse

An International Symposium

*edited with an introduction
by Lothar Hönnighausen*

Max Niemeyer Verlag
Tübingen 1989

Table of Contents

List of Abbreviations .....	viii
Preface .....	xi
Lothar Hönnighausen (Bonn)
Introduction .....	xiii

The New Impact of Psychoanalysis

Philip M. Weinstein (Swarthmore)
“If I Could Say Mother”: Construing the Unsayable About Faulknerian Maternity.....	3
James A. Snead (New Haven)
Litotes and Chiasmus: Cloaking Tropes in Absalom, Absalom! .....	16
François Pitavy (Dijon)
Some Remarks on Negation and Denegation in William Faulkner's Absalom, Absalom! .....	25
Winfried Herget (Mainz)
The Poetics of Negation in Faulkner's Absalom, Absalom! .....	33
Jacques Pothier (Paris)
Negation in Faulkner: Saying No to Time and Creating One's Own Space.....	38
Wolf Kindermann (Berlin)
Visual Motion in Faulkner's Narrative Art.....	46

Social Realities and Literary Discourse

John T. Matthews (Boston)
The Rhetoric of Containment in Faulkner .....	55
Richard Godden (Keele)
Iconic Narrative: Or, How Faulkner Fought the Second Civil War ..	68
Pamela E. Rhodes (Durham)
“I Remember Them Letters”: Byron Snopes and Interference .....	77

Peter Nicolaisen (Flensburg)
Group Perspective and Group Behavior: Notes on Faulkner's "Forensic Imagination" .....	90
Judith B. Wittenberg (Boston)
Gender and Linguistic Strategies in Absalom, Absalom! .....	99
Noel Polk (Hattiesburg)
Roland Barthes Reads A Fable .....	109
Heide Ziegler (Stuttgart)
Faulkner's Rhetoric of the Comic: The Reivers .....	117
Ilse Dusoïr Lind (New York)
The Language of Stereotype in "Death Drag".....	127
Karl F. Zender (Davis, California)
Contemporary History in Absalom, Absalom! : Some Directions for Study .....	132
 The Problem of Narration
Sonja Bašić (Zagreb)
Faulkner's Narrative: Between Involvement and Distancing .....	141
Dieter Meindl (Erlangen)
Some Epistemological and Esthetic Implications of William Faulkner's Discourse.....	149
Stephen M. Ross (Annapolis)
"Lying Beneath Speech": Some Preliminary Notes on the Representation of Thought in "Carcassonne".....	159
✕ André Bleikasten (Strasbourg)
Faulkner and the Paradoxes of Description.....	170
Michel Gresset (Paris)
Faulkner's Voice.....	184
Kenzaburo Ohashi (Yokohama)
Telling Against Writing: On a Transition in Faulkner's Style.....	195
Michiko Yoshida (Tokyo)
The Gravity of Silence in Faulkner's Language.....	204

Myriam Díaz-Diocaretz (Amsterdam)
"Look What He Has Already Done to Me": Modality and Temple Drake .....	214
Mick Gidley (Exeter)
Beyond "Beyond": Aspects of Faulkner's Representation of Death ..	223
Hans Skei (Oslo)
Inadequacies of Style in Some of William Faulkner's Short Stories..	234
Ursula Brumm (Berlin)
Theme and Narrative Voice in Faulkner's "Old Man".....	242
Thomas L. McHaney (Atlanta)
Problems of Faulkner's Poetics .....	248
Patrick Samway, S.J. (New York)
Narration and Naming in The Reivers .....	254
James E. Carothers (Lawrence)
The Rhetoric of Faulkner's Later Fiction, and of Its Critics .....	263
Michael Millgate (Toronto)
Faulkner: Is There a "Late Style"? .....	271
Gerhard Hoffmann (Würzburg)
Absalom, Absalom! : A Postmodernist Approach .....	276