

Contents

Detailed Contents	vii
Acknowledgment	xi
Introduction	1
Part I. Context Sensitivity: Variability vs. Stability	5
1. Contextual Variability	7
2. Stability Across Contexts	32
3. Some Strategies for Reconciling Stability and Variability	41
Part II. Theories of Context Sensitivity	63
4. What is a Theory of Meaning?	65
5. Character and Content	86
6. Indexed Truth Accounts: An Alternative to Kaplan	105
7. The Problem of Rigidity: Double Indexing and Monsters	121
8. The Problem of Same-Saying: Two Strategies	133
Part III. Contexts: What They Are and How We Create Them	151
9. What are Contexts?	153
10. More on Contextual Ingredients	164
11. How Speech Creates Contexts: Negotiation and Accommodation	177
Bibliography	191
Index	197