

The Moral Economy

Poverty, Credit, and Trust in Early Modern Europe

LAURENCE FONTAINE

Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique, France

CAMBRIDGE
UNIVERSITY PRESS

Contents

Acknowledgements	page vii
Introduction	i
Prologue	8
1. Poverty, Credit, and Social Networks	15
2. Peasants and Debt Logic	41
3. The Elite and Debt Logic	70
4. Urban Financial Microcircuits	95
5. Women's Economic Spheres and Credit	128
6. Between Bank and Assistance: Setting Up Pawnshops	157
7. The Battle of Prohibitions against Usury	183
8. Political Economies and Cultures of Exchange	217
9. Political Economy and Exchange Practices	246
10. Building Trust	268
Conclusion: From the Ancien Régime to the Twenty-First Century: A Journey Back and Forth	297