

The ART OF MEMOIR

Mary Karr

HARPER

An Imprint of HarperCollins Publishers

Contents

- Caveat Emptor xi
- Preface: Welcome to My Chew Toy xiii
- 1 | The Past's Vigor 1
- 2 | The Truth Contract Twixt Writer and Reader 9
- 3 | Why Not to Write a Memoir: Plus a Pop Quiz
to Protect the Bleeding & Box Out the Rigid 27
- 4 | A Voice Conjures the Human Who Utters It 35
- 5 | Don't Try This at Home:
The Seductive, Narcissistic Count 55
- 6 | Sacred Carnality 71
- 7 | How to Choose a Detail 79
- 8 | Hucksters, the Deluded, and Big Fat Liars 81
- 9 | Interiority and Inner Enemy—Private
Agonies Read Deeper Than External Whammies 91
- 10 | On Finding the Nature of Your Talent 101

| CONTENTS |

- 11 | The Visionary Maxine Hong Kingston 103
- 12 | Dealing with Beloveds (On and Off the Page) 111
- 13 | On Information, Facts, and Data 123
- 14 | Personal Run-Ins with Fake Voices 129
- 15 | On Book Structure and the Order of Information 147
- 16 | The Road to Hell Is Paved with Exaggeration 149
- 17 | Blind Spots and False Selves 151
- 18 | Truth Hunger: The Public and Private Burning of Kathryn Harrison 163
- 19 | Old-School Technologies for the Stalled Novice 171
- 20 | Major Reversals in Cherry and Lit 173
- 21 | Why Memoirs Fail 181
- 22 | An Incomplete Checklist to Stave Off Dread 189
- 23 | Michael Herr: Start in Kansas, End in Oz 193
- 24 | Against Vanity: In Praise of Revision 211
- Acknowledgments 219
- Appendix| Required Reading—Mostly Memoirs
and Some Hybrids 221
- Permissions 227